dear Padre
What sacraments are required for Catholics marrying in the Church?

Catholics who want to be married in the Church must be baptized in the Church, but must they also have made their first reconciliation and Communion and been confirmed?

Tracey

Dear Tracey,

The Code of Canon Law allows a baptized Catholic to be married in the Church without having celebrated the sacraments of reconciliation, confirmation, and the Eucharist, but that scenario is far from ideal.

The canon says, "If they can do so without serious inconvenience, Catholics who have not yet received... confirmation are to receive it before...marriage." Likewise, the canon strongly recommends "that those to be married approach the sacraments of penance and the Most Holy Eucharist so that they may fruitfully receive the sacrament of marriage" (1065).

The experience of marriage can be richer and more fruitful for Catholics who have grounded their practice of the faith through full initiation and regular celebrations of the Eucharist and reconciliation.

Catholics who want to be married in the Church but haven't received sacraments beyond baptism should talk with their pastor to see what makes the most sense regarding their deeper entrance into the sacramental life of the Church.
