"Well done, my good and faithful servant...Come and share Your master's joy." Mt: 25:21

The master's words of praise and welcome for the servant who used his talents well are the same words that each of us hopes to hear when we meet God face to face. "Well done, my good and faithful servant...Come and share your master's joy." We use our talents well when we live simply, make God a priority in our lives and share our gifts with others.

The annual lighting of the Hospice Tree of Life is scheduled for the evening of Thursday, November 17, 2011 at 6 p.m. at the Vernon Circle. It is a wonderful way in which to memorialize/honor loved ones. Last year's celebration brought together more than 100 individuals who watched as a hospice family turned on the lights on a crisp fall evening.

We would be delighted to have your "Family" join ours on this special evening.

Liturgical Language and Communion

Father Bernard Mulcahy, O.P.

The revised English translation of our Roman Missal gives us a chance to purify and deepen our communion in the Body of Christ, the Catholic Church, in two ways. First, it invites us to attend more closely to the words and spirit of the apostolic tradition of our sacred liturgy. Second, it confronts us with the need to work at our common prayer and approach the liturgy as disciples rather than masters.
