Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

Mk 11:1–10 or Jn 12:12–16 / Is 50:4–7
Phil 2:6–11 / Mk 14:1–15:47 or 15:1–39

"April Fool!" Sure, it's a modern saying, but that's how I felt when Pilate called for my release. He wasn't serious, was he? Was the crowd really asking for me, Barabbas—a convicted murderer—to be released instead of that seemingly insignificant Jesus? I didn't believe it until my shackles were undone and the rowdy crowd was slapping my back in celebration.

What I remember most is how he looked at me. The crowds were shouting, "Crucify him!" It was terrifying. But Jesus didn't look at me with anger or hatred. The tenderness in his eyes astounded me. Took my breath away, really. It was momentary—but I felt he could see all the horrible things I'd done, and yet he...loved me. It's hard to explain and probably sounds ridiculous. But it felt very real.

I was swept up with everyone following Jesus to his crucifixion. Part of me wanted to shout, "Stop! This man is going to die! This man was supposed to be me!" Yes, the crowd and leaders chose me, but ultimately, Jesus did the choosing. He didn't fight back, despite being innocent. He freely chose this path. It was terrible to watch him suffer and be crucified. Others taunted him, but I averted my eyes. I kept thinking about how he looked at me. I couldn't shake it.

After he died, I hung around, but not too long. His women friends stayed close to the cross, but I was afraid and confused. My buddies wanted to celebrate, but I needed to be alone. I suddenly felt like a different man. That look he gave me, and witnessing his passion—it changed me. I didn't know then where it would lead me, but I knew I was a changed man.

Will his passion change you?

"Why are you doing this?" This is a question that could be asked of anyone who gives time, talent or treasure to the Church. An answer is found in the Gospel of Mark, "The Master has need of it..." We are all called to give because Our Lord has need of it.

Defending Our Religious Liberty*Proposed Defending Our Religious Liberty #5 For April 1, 2012

A law enacted in 1973 says that no individual is required to take part in "any part of a health service program or research activity funded in whole or in part under a program administered by the Secretary of Health and Human Services (HHS), if it is contrary to his religious beliefs or moral convictions" (42 USC 300a-7 (d)).

Why, then, does the HHS and the federal government think they can do it in 2012 with the federal health care insurance mandate?

Please contact the offices of your Congressional Representatives and United States Senators to express your opposition to the mandate. For addresses and phone numbers, please visit: www.ctcatholic.org or www.norwichdiocese.org.
