

MOBILE CATHOLIC BOOK RACK

In the northwest vestibule of the church is a library cart containing spiritually inspired books on Catholic literature, devotional and theological writings, prayers, and both autobiographical and biographical books on popular saints. These books written by past and contemporary Catholic writers. An exception, Night, by Elie Wiesel, as he searches for God in the terrors of the Jewish Holocaust. Grow intellectually and spiritually by the wisdom of these saints and scholars. Draw nearer to God.

The books are free. Perhaps you have a book or two to donate.

